DELF exams

Take advantage of your coming to take the DELF diploma!

The DELF - Diplôme d'Etudes en Langue Française- is delivered by the French Department of Education and is valid all over the world. It certifies your French knowledge level according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

The Université d'été of Boulogne-sur-Mer organises the DELF diplomas (levels A2, B1, B2) during the summer courses. These certificates are very useful for a registration in a university or for your job.

These exams are optional for people who follow our courses.

The courses programs are varied and tackle the various features of the language. That's why, with the added cultural activities, the courses of the Université d'Été allow a quick progress and make easier the DELF diploma's preparation.

Instructors can also advise you:

- About the best diploma for you
- About your reviews according to your knowledge and the requirements for the DELF diploma.
